Dear Advisor,

It's hard to believe that September is already here. Students are excited about the promise of their fall sports teams, of homecoming, and of course, about Student Council! Student Council is getting back to work making the high school experience the best it can be for the 2011-2012 school year. This means that the IASC is working hard too, preparing for our 78th IASC State Convention. The state convention relies on students for the wealth of knowledge and enthusiasm they bring, and for the success of the convention itself. Please find enclosed the applications for the Second-Vice President positions.

As Second Vice President of the IASC, it is with great excitement that I take on the responsibility of recommending Honor Delegates for Hall of Ideas and Service Projects. These positions are of vital importance to the State Convention. Without students displaying their high schools fabulous ideas and donating their time and effort to provide the necessary supplies and services, the state convention wouldn't be the same. A student applying for these positions must have a strong desire to benefit the convention by displaying their ideas, by donating supplies, and by giving much-needed time and effort. Holding an Honor Delegate position for Hall of Ideas or Service Projects tells a lot about a student's character and leadership ability.

Please encourage all of your students to fill out this application and seek this amazing opportunity. Please copy the application as needed. Included is a letter to students explaining the Hall of Ideas and Service Project positions, as well as a brief letter about our Millikin Summer Leadership Workshop. Please remember that students can apply for only one Honor Delegate position.

Students who take the opportunities will grow and learn as leaders, and bring what they have learned back to their own councils. They may ultimately become leaders at the state level, as well as encourage others to get involved. Remember: without Honor Delegates, the convention would not be as special as it is. I hope you as an advisor will promote and support the program, and advise all of your students to apply. Thank you so much for your dedication to your students, and to the IASC.

Sincerely,

Alex Montesantos
IASC Second Vice-President

ATTENTION ALL STUDENT COUNCILS:

The IASC will be holding a district challenge this year. Everyone will have the opportunity to design a shirt for the IASC State Convention, and your executive board will pick the winner. So start thinking of a truly unique and amazing design that you think represents the IASC, one that all districts will love to wear!

Dear Student Council Member,

School is back and that means we all have homework to do, classes to juggle, sports to play, and, of course, Student Council. The 78th IASC State Convention is not until May. However, the IASC Executive Board is working at full speed for the Convention. We want you to be a part of this amazing Convention by becoming an Honor Delegate.

As Second Vice-President, a large part of my responsibilities include recruiting and selecting students for two of the many Honor Delegate positions the IASC has to offer.

Whether you are new to student council or already a pro, you should consider applying for one of the many Service Projects available. These projects vary, so you will be able to choose which one you and your school can perform best. These Service projects will require you to donate your time, effort, and in many cases, much needed supplies, to the State convention. These supplies and services will enhance everyone's convention experience.

For those who are more familiar with their school, who are enthusiastic, and who are eager to spread the word about their schools' amazing ideas, Hall of Ideas is the Honor Delegate position for you. This position involves showcasing one of your school's amazing ideas, whether it is about homecoming, turnabout, fundraising, or school spirit. These showcases are crucial to the Convention, because they allow all other schools at the convention to go back home with new ideas that can benefit their schools.

Please take your time to consider which position best suits you. Understand what each position will ask of you, and choose the best one for your specific talents. Talk to your advisors about your thoughts and choices, as they will help you in make the best decision. Remember: you make the IASC such a special organization. Thank you for your constant dedication, and feel free to contact me with any and all questions!

Sincerely,

Alex Montesantos
IASC Second Vice-President

2012 IASC STATE CONVENTION
"SURVIVING THE TRIP TO LEADERSHIP"
MAY 3-5, 2012 – SPRINGFIELD HILTON

Description of Second Vice-President Honor Delegate Positions

Honor Delegate Notice:

These Honor Delegate positions are a crucial part of the 2012 IASC State Convention. Applying for and being accepted to one of these Honor Delegate Positions constitutes your understanding that your efforts and abilities need to be at the highest level of leadership you can demonstrate. These positions are not for those who think they can apply just to go to the Convention and do little to no work. That being said, the board has the utmost confidence that the Honor Delegates for these positions for the 2012 IASC State Convention will be enthusiastic and superb.

Service Projects:

Service Project Honor Delegates provide goods or a service to the Convention. Examples include: folders, banners, certificates, and other useful items to help the host school make the convention run smoothly.

Complete list of Service Projects needed for the 2012 State Convention

Advisor Luncheon Attendance Prize	Pencils
Advisor Luncheon Tickets	Raffle and DGL Tickets
Advisor Raffle Prizes	Raffle Basket
Banquet Programs	Recorder Certificates
Banquet Tickets	Room Signs for Discussion Groups
Center Pieces	Service Project Certificates
DGL Certificates	Singing National Anthem
Snacks for Credentials	Voting Flags
Goodie Baskets for State Board	Pens
Honor Delegate Certificates	Key Chains
Lanyards	Notepads

Note: A $25.00 donation per Honor Delegate can be chosen as a Service Project, for the purchase of needed convention supplies

Hall of Ideas:

Hall of Ideas Honor Delegates make a display to show a unique activity or service that your council does. The display and handouts are set up for other delegates to get ideas to take back to their own councils.
